

DAZED AND CONFUSED

 A TRIBUTE TO LED ZEPPELIN

FORMED:
2006

Dazed and Confused is two time nominee and winner of the SAN DIEGO MUSIC AWARD in the category of “Best Cover or Tribute Band”. We were also finalists in the Ultimate Music Challenge 4

Dazed and Confused presents a fusion of the live and studio versions of Led Zeppelin albums and setlists. Every nuance you hear has been taken from an actual studio or live/bootleg recording.

Much of the bands equipment are exact replica’s of the actual instruments Led Zeppelin played.

Our attire is influenced by non-standard outfits Led Zeppelin wore throughout their career. Instead of the typical dragon suite, our Jimmy Page wears a version of the Storm Trooper outfit worn by the guitarist in the late 70s. Our John Bonham wears a Clockwork Orange-like outfit worn by the drummer in The Song Remains the Same movie.

The constantly-expanding setlist includes a wealth of songs from Led Zeppelin I to Coda. Stuff for the die hard fans as well as the casual listeners.

TESTIMONIALS:

Dave Brock (Wild Child, singer)

“Dazed was a treat for the crowd. It was the third Zep band that has opened for us at Canes. There was more than one person that came up to me and said you guys were the best!”

Marshall Peden (Director of Charity Relations/Stay Classy Productions, Inc.)

“Gentlemen, This is Marshall from Stay Classy. We thought your set (at Cane’s) rocked, and are so glad you're on board for the Charity Crawl! Thanks, again!”

Scott Cathalinat, owner of Last Call San Diego

"Dazed and Confused is the most talked about band to ever play here at Last Call. We can always count on a great show and an enthusiastic crowd whenever they play."
